

Why does the “Issue detected” message appear when I navigate through my project from Archipad Web?

Posted on July 28, 2026 by Smaheine

This message displays when more recent changes than yours have been made to the project (by another user or from another device). It prompts you to refresh the page or synchronize the project in order to retrieve the latest version before continuing.